It would be unfair if I do not mention the invaluable and timely cooperation extended to me by our co-ordinator Dr. Bharti Rathore and the worthiest suggestions, advices given by Dr. Chirag Darji will be remembered and practiced by me for years. Next I would like to thank Librarian Mr. Bhavin Prajapati and other staff members of Waymade College of Education for extending their helping hands.

I am grateful to the students of both the schools for their kind support and cooperation in completion of my research work. My heartfelt thanks extend out to Mr. Keval Thaker for technical feedback and all my classmates for their innovative suggestions, creative ideas and lots of cheerful moments.

I cannot refrain myself from expressing my feeling towards my family. Special thanks to my parents who supported me in all circumstances, always stood beside me as a motivator, facilitator, advisor and a guide. They encouraged me throughout the stage of learning and their faith in me boosted my every moment with positive vibrations and raised my confidence level which helped me to complete research work.

Conducting a research work is a co-operative venture and a lot of individuals and institutions have made this work possible. I express my heartfelt thanks to all the individuals and last but not the least I express my sincere thanks to Waymade College of Education for providing such a platform for implementing the ideas in my mind.
