Acknowledgement

It is rightly said in many ancient religious scriptures, an individual cannot survive and strengthen his/her competency alone. H/she requires kind support and gentle touch to develop personally and professionally. Let me take an opportunity to thank the Almighty without his creation and blessings, nothing possible.

The research could not have been in its present shape without the cooperation of my family members from whom I have received unconditional love and support. Heartfelt thanks to my wife my greatest source of inspiration.

I must mention here that the words are insufficient to express my deep sense of gratitude and love to my research guide Dr. Chirag Darji sir. He is one of the best research guides who not only understand the problem of the students but also visualize the doubts and challenges roaming in the minds of the students. It is my privilege to work under his constructive, motivational and rationale guidance.

I am also thankful to Dr. Dipali Gandhi madam for making the possible arrangements of all the curricular and co-curricular activities. I am also thankful to Dr. Bharti Rathore who used to teach aspects of Research in HINGULISH. Means Hindi, Gujarati and English. She has always motivated me to carry out the research on time.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to the college who allowed me to undertake this study and permitted me to make the optimum use of the facilities at the college.

I also thank to all the experts and school people who gave their valuable suggestions for the preparation of research tools and programme.

I am also thankful to the students of both the schools of the academic year 2019-2020 who have enthusiastically participated in the activities and supported me to carry out this research.
