

CHAPTER 5

DATA ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

5.0 INTRODUCTION

The fifth chapter includes data analysis and interpretation of the obtained data of questions and checklist for Teachers and close ended questionnaire for students. The researcher has obtained data to get positive influence of television on students' learning. The data is prepared in Table after each Table and the researcher has presented the interpretation of that Table in percentages. In this chapter, the researcher has also prepared pie chart for data interpretation. This chapter should bring your readers as close as reasonable to the original data and experiences of the study.